THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Hampton & Co.) MEMPHIS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1867. (Volume Nine—Number 221

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

Napoleon is extending and strengthening the fortifications at Strasbourg.

Italy is preparing to resist Garibaldi in his aggressive movements in Rome.

La Rue's minstrels were to make their first appearance at Louisville last night.

Hon. Thomas A. DeBlois, a distinguished lawyer of Maine, died at Portland on Monday, aged seventy-two years.

The Michigan State Fair at Detroit closed on Friday. The total receipts during the week amounted to about $15,000.

Miss Adelaide C. Hayes, a Jersey City school teacher, has been held for trial, charged with unmercifully beating a child.

During the past week five hundred and forty applications and eighty caveats were filed in the Patent office.

Mrs. Caroline Gould Hildreth, wife of the late historian, Richard Hildreth, deceased August 18, of cholera, at Naples.

Baron Ernest Fleury [illegible] landed in New York a fortnight [illegible] of typhoid fever, He was [illegible] comfortable [illegible] only a plea[illegible]

From returns to th[illegible] appears that the total [illegible] in Illinois, for 1867, is [illegible] notice the increase of over $82,000,000 since [illegible] the first Assessment.

In July, August and [illegible] of the latter month, there were [illegible] deaths among the troops at New Orleans, by yellow fever.

Frederick Schrafhaustin, of Yonkers, Monday, murdered Theresa Wierman, and subsequently committed suicide. The supposed cause is unrequited affection.

Edwin Booth received a severe wound in the hand, in a Baltimore theater, on Saturday, while fencing with Mr. Vanderhoff, in the closing scene of Richard III.

A railroad convention was to be held at Louisville on the 17th, of delegates from counties interested in building a straight line from Louisville to Danville.

Darby Doyle, late of the Louisville Courier, is announced as one of the editors of the Louisville Standard—the new afternoon Democratic paper. Darby is a whole team.

Brown George and his running mate, made their fastest time on Monday, at Milwaukee, and beat Butler's best time, 2:20, which was made in two heats.

In a coal mine at Petersburg, Mahoning county, Ohio, John Eckert has been running a distillery for the past eight months, without paying the revenue tax. The concern was two hundred feet under ground, but an officer found and seized it on Saturday.

There is considerable excitement in Mexico over the call issued for a general election. Juarez is in favor of amending the constitution so as to make it similar to that of the United States, but is meeting with considerable opposition.

The Rome Courier, of the 10th, reports that Colonel J. D. Waddell, of Polk county, received a painful injury by falling from the platform in getting off the train in the dark, at Rome, on Friday night last.

"Brown has won the race, but Hamill claims a foul," remarked Tiffins to Thompson yesterday. "Yes, but is it a turkey or a chicken that he claims?" querried Thompson. "Oh, it's an aquatic fowl," replied Tiffins.

The Indian agent, Wright, from Fort Benton, Montana, is in St. Louis. He acts as agent for 13,000 Indians. He says the Indian war is a great humbug, gotten up and fostered to put money in the pockets of speculators.

Four brothers, named Bridenomer, in Posey county, Indiana, attempted, on Sunday, to unload a shell, when it exploded, killing one, blowing a leg from the second, an arm from the third, and seriously injuring the fourth. It is supposed that all will die.

Madame Goldschmidt, the wife of a well known merchant, was frightened to death while at the market in Cincinnati, on Saturday, by the sudden announcement made to her by a servant that her children, whom she had just left at home in good health, were all dying.

Fred. Wreckman, aged fifty-four, who had been married only six days to a lady of twenty-six, died suddenly Monday night, in Cincinnati. The wife was horror stricken on awakening in the morning, and finding that she had been sleeping by the side of her husband's corpse.

Gossips say that the object of the royal meeting at Salzburg was to arrange a marriage between the Prince Imperial and the Princess Gisele of Austria, a charming little miss of eleven years—in fact, a perfect little pearl of a princess, a sort of good fairy to all around her, and full of simplicity and tenderness.

Greeley indulged a short time since in unmeasured abuse of President Johnson for proposing to appoint General Steedman to the war office. It turns out, from a letter just published, that Horace Greeley personally recommended Steedman for the position.

The dwelling house of Jairus Kene, at East Abington, Massachusetts, was burned on Sunday night. Mr. Kene's two daughters, his only children, aged nineteen and twenty-one, were burned to death. Mr. Kene is in New Orleans, and his wife and daughters were alone in the house.

An old resident of Jamestown, New York, reports that in 1808, when the town was first settled, the village commons was cleared of stumps by fines imposed on those who got drunk. The penalty for getting drunk was to dig up a large stump, and for getting only tipsy, a smaller stump. The removal of every stump in about two months was the result.

A private letter from Paris states that Lieutenant George Mason has just left for his post of duty in the French army in Algiers. Lieutenant Mason, it will be remembered, is the son of the late Hon. John Y. Mason, and at the time of his appointment by the Emperor of the French was employed as a clerk at the Tredegar Works in Richmond.

General Grant, Tuesday, received from General Schofield a telegram communicating the important fact that he had ordered the election in Virginia for the 22d of October, under the Reconstruction act, thus disregarding the suggestion which the President had made for uniform election in all of the Southern States on the first Tuesday in November. The fact silicis considerable comment, and the friends of the President say that he will certainly remove Schofield unless he postpones the election.

A gentleman in Washington has received a letter from Secretary Fessenden, in which occurs the following passage relative to the report recently published, that he had expressed himself in favor of impeachment: "I have written no letter nor expressed no opinion on the subject of impeachment. It will be time enough for me to express an opinion on that subject when the case comes before me. You are at perfect liberty to contradict that report, as I do not like to be considered as giving the lie to all I have said in the Senate with regard to my duties as a Senator in such cases."

John Gallagher, "a young man of excellent character," was found dead on the track of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, near Mansfield, Ohio, on Monday morning. He had been visiting a young lady in the neighborhood, and left her at three o'clock in the mording. He had been struck by a locomotive while either walking or sitting on the track.

The Chicago New Covenant says: "Two gifted clergymen have been recent inmates of the Washington Home, of this city, seeking a cure of their habits of intoxication—and a third, after preaching on trial, for months, to one of the wealthiest and largest parishes in the city, was rejected, despite his overmastering pulpit ability, because he was a secret drunkard.

General Howard, in order to reduce the expenses of the Freedmen's Bureau to the narrowest possible limits, after consultation with General Grant, has issued an important letter to the Assistant Commissioners, calling for the reduction of the employes, whenever it can be enforced. General Grant has issued an order of co-operation, designating subordinate military officers to take the place of those dismissed.

Dispatches from Montana lately received states the volunteers had a fight near Yellowstone on the 1st instant, with a party of Sioux Crow who were on their way to attack a settlement in Gallatin Valley. The volunteers rescued two men who were badly wounded, when they had fought the Indians five hours. The whites lost two men. Loss of the Indians unknown. Strong appeals have been made to the Government to furnish volunteers, arms and supplies, and to allow them to fight the Indians on their own hook, and promising to speedily settle the Indian question.

The Union Pacific was completed on Saturday night four hundred and sixty miles West. The track laying, which has been retarded somewhat for lack of supplies, will be resumed with increased vigor this week. An interesting discovery of the remains of ancient inhabitants of the country was made during a recent survey of the branch road from Cheyenne to Denver. The road passes through high and dry prairie, along the hills, full of specimens of a tertiary age. Iron and coal were found in abundance near Cheyenne.

General Halleck telegraphs General Grant, suggesting that the Government at once apply the regulations governing the Indian Territories, to the recenily acquired Russian territory on the Northwest Pacific, in order to prevent an illicit traffic in liquor, and to obviate its demoralizing tendency on the natives. General Halleck does not state that any such trade has commenced, but he doubtless bases his telegram on some facts which have come to his notice. General Grant has referred the subject to the State Department, where the opinion is entertained that General Rousseau, our Special Commissioner, and the Revenue Agent, who accompanies him, are fully competent to protect the Government and guard the interests of the new subjects.

LOCAL NEWS.

Two venders of the lacteal fluid, in whom the milk of human kindness had grown sour, had a fight on the levee Monday.

Ward & Thompson are making preparations to issue another edition of the City Directory, with considerable improvement.

The Tennessee National Bank building which, in accordance with the stupid suggestion of the legislative committee, has been retained by the Receiver while settling up its affairs, is to be sold on the 26th instant.

INTERESTING TO MANY PERSONS.—Great mechanical improvements are always exceedingly simple in their principles. Complication usually indicates weakness. Simplicity of parts suggests strength, fitness and capacity, for universal application. The shuttle principle in sewing machines when once understood is exceedingly simple, but how boundless its utility. The self-fastening iron buckle tie for cotton bales, sold by D. H. Davies & Co., Louisville, Kentucky, is a new thing and very simple, but it is an improvement of very great importance to all cotton planters and dealers. It is strong easy of application, cheap and lasting, and must supplant all other appliances for fastening cotton bales. We commend to the attention of our readers the advertisement in another column.

WONDERFUL RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.—This is truly an age progressive, as may be witnessed by the wonderful improvements made for the comfort and security of passengers, and speedy transportation of freights by that great iron link, the Little Miami railroad, or as it is commonly known "the old reliable." In connection with the four great trunk lines, the New York Central, New York and Erie, Pennsylvania Central, and Baltimore and Ohio, enables the Lit le Miami to put passengers through to Buffalo, Pittsburg and Wheeling without a change of cars. This is doing wonders, but the Little Miami seems to have gone ahead of this. Passengers can now get on one of the magnificent silver palace sleeping cars, and go through to New York without a change. As many of our readers probably never ride on one of the sleeping cars named, we will state they are not only luxuriously comfortable, but that the staterooms are furnished with ice water wash stands, water closets, and all other conveniences, going far ahead of anything yet invented. By this line a person can go through to Philadelphia, Washington City and Baltimore with only one change of cars. The fact is the inducements offered by "old reliable" are unsurpassed in the world, either for comfort, safety or speed. The company is at present building a magnificent car-hall boat at Cincinnati, for receiving freight with elevators, switches and hand cars, and all the modern improvements that are necessary for quick and safe transfer. The Little Miami seems lucky in everything, even in the change their officers, and especially of the selection of their General Southern Passenger Agent, C. W. S. Brown, Esq. Every one knows Brown, and everybody likes him. He is one of your go-ahead-give fellows, that works hard and makes himself universally popular by his courtesy and urbanity to all who have business for him. It is no wonder then that the Little Miami is so popular in this part of the country, and it will be sure to increase in public favor so long as Brown has a hand in it.

WILLING TO BE SQUIRES.—There is to be an election on next Saturday for three Justices of the Peace. Two are for the Thirteenth and one for the Fourteenth Civil District. The places of J. S. Black and W. S. Walton of the Thirteenth District being declared vacant by Sheriff Winters, and W. R. Smith of the Fourteenth District having died, in the Thirteenth District there is very little magistrates business, and fees being, consequently, scarce nobody wants the office, unless they can be elected for that district and have their offices for the transaction of business in some other. In the Fourteenth district quite a quite willsbit possessing any legal ability or much common sense, and who can only write his name tolerably well, can make from five to twenty dollars a day in fees and perquisites, facitally called "perks," and even a great deal more if they take what are called "rough chances." Of course nobody wants office for the "rough chances," or the "perks," they all want the legitimate profits. In the Fourteenth district there are five or six different individuals who are ready to serve their county as Justices of the Peace. Mr. H. H. Shook, a deputy constable, would take the place. Mr. J. S. Black, who is one of those whose place is now vacated, will accept as a election. Mr. Griffin, a policeman, schooled in the lower station house, would take it. Mr. Cook, a gentleman of legal reflection, is pressed by some of his friends, and the clever John Norton, constable, whose friends say he must be elected, is smothered as a candidate. It is a great pity they can't all be elected. Mr. Black because he has had experience in civil cases. Mr. Griffin, because he has studied criminal procedure. Mr. Cook, because he has read the "history of a lawsuit." Mr. Schultz, because he can talk German; and Mr. Norton, because he understands collections. Griffin will get the Beaumont influence; Schultz, the German; Black, the loyal league; Cook, his friends, and Norton, probably, a majority of voters, if some one else don't get more.

COTTON CROP IN MISSISSIPPI.

Terrible Ravages of the Worm.

A letter from an intelligent gentleman at Rodney, Mississippi, says: "I am sorry to state that the ravages committed by the army worm in this section, are beyond the expectations of the oldest and most experienced planters. Fields of cotton from one to two hundred acres, which were covered with the richest foliage, and teemed with the greatest profusion of forms and blooms one week ago, are now in a state of entirety, with scarce a leaf perceptible. But have they confined their ravages to the cotton leaf alone, but half grown bolls have shared the same fate, and one can, by close observation, find many entirely stripped out. It is thought many planters postponed that their cotton leaves were too old and tough, has been proved an idle delusion. Another feature of the rapaciousness of this worm, that I have noticed, is that they have destroyed every vestige of vegetation on the limb. They are now to be found ribbed up on the forest trees overhanging the fields and the tough and fibrous leaves of the oak trees have been eaten by them with the greatest avidity. They are also to be found on the cane in great numbers. Every carabeetle seems to be full of them, and if they had been raised down from the elements they could not be thicker. The stench from the dead ones is intensely unbearable. A great many planters tried to destroy them, but it proved, from what I can learn, a futile effort. All the surrounding counties have been visited by the same scourge, and I have heard of no one who calculates on half a crop of cotton. The corn and pea crop is better than ever known before, and a good many planters expect to sell corn and peas next year. They have determined never to buy another grain of corn, and I think their suppose. Sow pea along corn has proved a useful lesson."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR MAGISTRATE—JOHN NORTON offers himself as a candidate for the office of Magistrate of the Fourteenth Civil District, to fill vacancy of W. K. Smith, deceased. Election September 21, 1867. se18
Ledger copy.

THURSDAY, : : : : SEPTEMBER 19, 1867

MEMPHIS should lose no time in offering every inducement that can draw hither an augmented business. Has she been true to herself and her destiny? or has she slept while the oil in her lamps burned out, and they were not replenished? We conversed with a gentleman from the Yalobusha valley, who informed us that Louisville and New Orleans are tugging at that rich and fertile region, to see who shall secure it all. Their merchants have sent down among the people, and presented such offers, that many a bargain has been struck, that legitimately belonged to this city. In the country press, we find New Orleans and Louisville advertisements in shoals, and seldom encounter one from this city. This is a capital way to hide the light under a bushel, that might illumine the whole horizon. There is the Grenada Sentinel, edited by that genial and gifted gentleman, J. A. SIGNAIGO? is our city availing herself of his columns? While contributing to his success, every advertisement placed in his columns might be expected to return a hundred fold. The same may be said of the Bolivar Bulletin, and the West Tennessee Whig, all excellent papers, and calculated to extend the acquaintance of our merchants, in the direction that would be found most advantageous. We open these papers with surprise, for their columns show more alertness in other places than in Memphis, which should feel most deeply interested. It is a matter for consideration, whether a liberal policy toward the country newspaper press would not inure to the benefit of the city, even beyond the expense incurred? We saw in the Appeal yesterday an article from the pen of the editor who wrote from Louisville. In that article a striking contrast was drawn between the rents and the rates of living in the two places. We were told that a number of Arkansas merchants were engaged in purchasing their merchandise in that city, though many of them had passed our very doors on their way there. Our cotemporary thinks that this is caused by high rents, high taxes, and corresponding rates. May not the fact that the large dealers depend principally upon their well earned fame, without renewing their claims by timely advertisements explain this opposite attraction elsewhere? The prestige of advertising boldly and sufficiently has not been duly honored. This should not be. Our city papers may not reach some of these country readers, but it is not a supposable case that they would reach one in ten, while these advertisements would fall in pleasant places if transferred to the columns of the local press. Memphis desires the business of the surrounding country. It is her natural right, but she should not predicate too much on her position. The scepter may pass from the house of JUDAH, and it will require "the weary courtship of care tired thoughts" to win back a trade once departed. Let us hope that as many friends remain to Memphis as existed before the policy of the Radicals became fixed with eternal hostility to all that had been honored and revered in the past. It is matter for consideration, and we hope it will receive it with that calmness which is always the forerunner of amendment.

A BRIEF extract from the opinion of Justice MCLEAN, in the celebrated DRED SCOTT case, may be appropriate at this time, when there seems to be some doubt as to the legitimate limits that Congress can constitutionally go. He says:

Did Chief Justice Marshall, in saying that Congress governed a Territory by exercising the combined powers of the Federal and State Governments, refer to unlimited discretion? A government which can make white men slaves? Surely such a remark in the argument must have been inadvertently uttered. On the contrary, there is no power in the Constitution by which Congress can make either white or black men slaves. In organising the Government of a Territory, Congress is limited to means appropriate to the attainment of the constitutional object. No powers can be exercised which are prohibited by the Constitution, or which are contrary to its spirit; so that whether the object may be the protection of the persons and property of purchasers of the public lands, or of communities who have been annexed to the Union by conquest or purchase, they are initiatory to the establishment of State Governments, and no more power can be claimed or exercised than is necessary to the attainment of the end. This is the limitation of all the Federal powers. But Congress has no power to regulate the internal concerns of a State, as of a Territory; consequently, in providing for the government of a Territory, to some extent, the combined powers of the Federal and State Governments are necessarily exercised.

As the ten Southern States are States and not territories, Congress, according to Judge MCLEAN, "has no power to regulate" their "internal concerns." That they are States has been abundantly proved by the acts of Congress itself. Why else was the amendment submitted to them for ratification manumitting all slaves? Was that the last spark of respect for the Constitution that remained unextinguished? Judge MCLEAN says, "Congress is limited to means appropriate to the attainment of the constitutional object," and "no powers can be exercised which are prohibited by the Constitution." STEVENS, the Radical leader, has admitted that it was necessary to go outside the Constitution to accomplish Radical ends. Judge MCLEAN was a life time Republican, and his opinion should be taken as orthodox by the so-called Republicans. Had he survived to this hour, it is not probable that he, in any way, would have countenanced the monstrous assaults and usurpations made upon the Constitution by the Radical Congress. The military occupation and government of ten States, when the country is at peace, and taxation without representation, would never have received his sanction. He knew that the Constitution was the highest power in the land, and as such he respected it.

Miss Susan C. Godsa, the sleeping girl of Hickman, Kentucky, of whom we have published several extraordinary accounts, is to be exhibited at the coming county fair at Hickman, for the benefit of her mother, who is in very needy circumstances. Miss Godsa is now twenty-seven years of age, and was born in Gibson county Tennessee, and has been sleeping for the last eighteen years, only awakening at certain intervals in the day, and then only remaining awake from seven to ten minutes, when she again falls asleep. Her mind and body both are perfect, yet feeble and inactive.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 18.

At a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows to-day, the resolution for the admission of no beneficiary members was lost. It was resolved to revise the German translation of the written work of the order, and the matter was intrusted to a committee of representatives—Mack, of Wisconsin; Deitz, of Georgia, and Garry, of Maryland. A resolution against the abolition of the degrees of Dibah, and providing for a more thorough organization of the work, was not acted on. A charter was granted to a Grand Lodge of colored men. It was also resolved that the late grand bodies be empowered to cause defunct Lodges or Encampments to be reinstituted on the application of five members.

MARRIED.

On the 17th instant, by the Rev. C. H. Davis, at the residence of the bride's father, MR. F. H. LINDT to MISS ANNIE F. CHILES.

IN MEMORIAM.

G. W. HUDSON, a well known citizen of Marshall county, Mississippi, died at LAFAYETTE Springs, in the same State, August 23d, 1867, aged thirty-three years.

Thus are we again called upon to record the departure from among us to the "unknown shores," of another one of those true and patriotic spirits, who for four years stood faithfully with his countrymen, through sunshine and storm, and gave his best energies to the success of a cause, which, though baffled at last, he and they believed to be the cause of true liberty—the cause of permanent free government on this continent and throughout the world. "WADDY HUDSON," (as he was known to his schoolmates, and friends generally,) was born in North Alabama, about the year 1838; but, removing with his family to Mississippi at an early age, had resided the greater part of his life near Lamar, Marshall county, in the midst of a large circle of kindred; among whom was his two distinguished brothers, Hon. Thomas J. and John L. Hudson, and his uncle, Dr. G. W. and Colonel Wm. R. Smith, who still survive to mourn his early death and cherish the memory of his many virtues. He was educated at the University of Mississippi, at Oxford, where he was deservedly popular with his fellows for those sterling qualities both of the head and heart, which, when so happily combined as they were in him, college students are so quick to recognize, so eager to cultivate, and so sure to swear allegiance to and be faithful to the end of life. At the breaking out of hostilities between "the sections," he enlisted early in 1861 with the very first troops raised in Mississippi, and served with them through that dreary twelve-month of comparatively uneventful but indispensable duty performed by Alabama, Florida, and Mississippi volunteers at Pensacola. Though his health was never robust, and already, before the war began, betrayed symptoms of constitutional decay, he nevertheless continued actively in the service, in one useful capacity or another, down to the disastrous close.

The disease which carried him off, in the very prime of young manhood, was that arch-insidious enemy of our race, Consumption, with which he suffered through a long and painful illness.

One who knew him nearly all his life thus writes of him: "WADDY HUDSON was remarkble for the purity of his private character, the unchanging amiability and equanimity of his temper and disposition, the warm affection he bore toward kindred and friends, and for his honorable, high-toned and most liberal dealing with all." This is high praise—and it is just. Peace to his ashes! Cherished be his memory!

SEVENTY-FIVE ACRES, LOTS.

Varying from two to ten acres in size, embracing with the fee of lands all the wood land lots on the Tract.

The high reputation for the health which this locality enjoys, and the choice of easy and quick communication with the city by railway or dirt road, give to these lands advantages that must be apparent to the business men of Memphis, as a cheap, convenient and pleasant point at which to establish their family residences, combining so fully the advantages of town and country.

With the object of removing all difficulty in selling, we shall offer the property upon the following easy

TERMS—One fourth cash, balance in 6, 12, 18 and 24 months' with interest. Warranty deeds given and deed of trust taken, waiving redemption.

EVERY LOT PUT UP WILL BE SOLD WITHOUT RESERVE. Plans of the lots may be obtained at the office of the Auctioneers; each lot being staked so as to be examined before the sale.

Sale will be upon the premises on WEDNESDAY, the 16th of October, 1867.

Public Sale

OF

300 ACRES SUBURBAN LAND

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavement being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or gravel railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of the speedy and rapid enhancement of values.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs, while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.

The SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about Five Acres, according to plans to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSTALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

It is a labor saving invention as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the hair whitened and cleansed, plate and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, paint, varnish or marble with the greatest facility and without injury to the most delicate fabric. It is a saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known soap which will wash Sarsaparilla and the use of cotton or linen thereafter will be unnecessary. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so economical and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the south, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. F. MCGIMSEY, Memphis, Tenn., and can soon be found at every respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidity extending demand for its use.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'s medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANÆMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY AND POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup o Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris, as a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. As a powerful assistant in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been administered with the most

SYNOPTICAL.

Mat Hodges was arrested for stealing $60 in money from a man named Harris, but got away and has gone to St. Louis.

Tom Porter, a stout mechanic, was arrested yesterday for stealing $6 from a negress named Polly Dawson.

A horse and buggy ran away on Union street yesterday. Nobody hurt.

Sidney Coot, who does the literature and segars at the Gayoso House, has gone East for a big supply.

Some of the Radicals who want Nolli's place, since he has nothing now to do, are now laying wires for his removal.

It is probable that J. D. Wimberly will be a candidate for constable in the fourteenth civil district. This is human nature.

The Pride of the South and Enterprise Base Ball Clubs did not play yesterday on account of the rain.

The Memphis Union Publishing Company is to be resuscitated by means of an election to be held to-day in the Jackson Block.

There were only four cases on the dockets of the upper police courts yesterday. How can the police fund get along under such circumstances?

Mike Gibson was arrested yesterday for re-selling a watch from David Heuss, and Sam Johnson for stealing sixty dollars from Mr. Levy.

It is reported that Dalby, who nominated himself as Radical candidate for Wharfmaster, was blackballed in several of the Loyal Leagues, colored and white, but finally crowded in.

Abe Higgins and another negro were arrested yesterday for stealing a lot of clothes from a woman in south Memphis. Higgins, by way of excuse, said "he belonged to de leagur, if he did steal de close."

The mail from Chattanooga to Memphis on Monday was brought through in a baggage car, as a slight accident had occurred to the postal car on the Memphis and Charleston road. Letters from way stations were not in consequence delivered as usual.

The alarm of fire last evening was caused by the burning of the kitchen of Mr. Lamb's house, on Exchange, below Third street. Being promptly discovered, it was easily suppressed. Not much damage was done. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary, as Mr. Lamb's premises have been set on fire half a dozen times.

A black name [illegible] John Edwards stole clothing from a dye shop on Gayoso street. He was chased, and Captain Hobbs, Deputy Marshal of the Municipal Court, succeeded in capturing him. Captain Hobbs also arrested a man named Rhine, for striking the prisoner while in custody, and carried both his prisoners to the Causey street station-house.

John Hogan, who has been staying at 57 Front street, went out about seven o'clock Sunday evening, and has not since been heard of. He is said to be a stogie man, aged twenty-six, five feet nine inches in hight, and dark complexion. He wore a black hat, black coat, gray pants, and leather gaiters. His friends are alarmed at his absence.

Nearly all the silverware burglariously stolen, recently, from Harry Weatherbee's saloon, was recovered yesterday. It had been deposited in a bank—a sand bank—and one of those implicated gave a hint to the officers. One of the guilty parties made his escape on Sunday. Several persons have been arrested.

The work of putting down the Nicolson pavement on Main street is to be pushed forward with. It will be hoped that the commencing point will be the intersection of Madison street, and that a gang of hands may work each way, as thus the business portion of the street will be certainly done before bad weather sets in. Commencing at this point the grades can be given as the work progresses.

A little boy named John Freed, whose father resides in Hopefield, caught, on Sunday last, two hundred and thirty fish in the lake back of Hopefield. This contradicts the old proverb that you'll have no luck if you fish on Sunday. Why the boy wasn't drowned in accordance with the usual moral stories, we can't imagine.

The colored Baptists baptized quite a number of new converts on last Sunday, putting them into the filthy, stagnant water that had accumulated in a hole in the Bayou. A worse emblem of regeneration it would be difficult to find, and without having the least disposition to scoff at religious services, we think a better place and cleaner water should have been selected.

The case of Mr. Milliken came up in the United States Court yesterday. Brief arguments were submitted, and the judges took the case under advisement. They will not render a decision until they hear from General Thomas, as they consider it an act of courtesy from the judiciary to hear the statement of the military commander of the department in reference to Mr. Milliken's case.

A lot of little mackerel thieves took quite an interest on Monday in getting a number of their companions into hospitals. The exposures incident to their precarious lives had given some of them chills and others bilious fever, and their companions, little wails of humanity, floating about from town to town on the Mississippi, living by theft, and learning vices far beyond their years, took a laudable interest in having the sick ones cared for. It was a pretty but pleasing incident, and showed that a reform school or home of refuge, appealing to the better nature of these boys, might make them grow up useful men, while otherwise they will either die prematurely, or become pests to society.

The want of a bank with large capital, devoted to the furtherance of legitimate trade, is severely felt in Memphis, especially when cotton has to be forwarded to Eastern markets. Our banks, National and otherwise, have all very limited capital, and most of that capital is absorbed by loans on various sorts of collaterals. Not long since a gentleman in St. Louis made a deposit of a few thousand dollars in one of the banks there, and took a draft on Memphis for that amount, but his draft could not be cashed, and he had to send by express for his money. In another instance a National bank recently paid three per cent. a month interest on money that it borrowed. Of course it could not without loss loan money for legitimate business.

Alderman T. O. Smith, who is second to no member of the Board in desire to serve the public faithfully, presented at the last meeting three important measures. One was an ordinance to abolish the public pound, as a nuisance that favors black-mailing and larceny by rogues who as often take animals to the pound as to any other place. Another of Alderman Smith's measures had reference to Pigeon Roost road, upon which the street railroad laid a track, when it was in good condition, and have now torn it up, and left the road in a very bad way. The third of his measures is a proposition to pay some of the fairly the unfortunates placed upon the chain gang. They now work out fines at fifty cents a day, but Alderman Smith proposes to allow them seventy-five cents a day.

The colored population don't like the present aspect of the Franchise act. They like it well enough to exclude the majority of white folks from voting, but things are not going right. The Radicals told them that the sixteenth section, excluding colored folks from office, should be repealed forthwith, but now the Radicals profess to have discovered that the sixteenth section, the corner stone of the Franchise act, is part of the State constitution, and can't be legally changed except in the mode prescribed in the constitution. This will involve a delay of five or six years. This don't satisfy colored aspirants for office, by a good deal. They will have to grin and bear it as the Radicals can't think of changing it except in a constitutional manner, and the holding a State convention would be a concession that the Conservative programme was the right one.

Some of our merchants affect to think that a change of nurses would benefit the Chamber of Commerce, and they incline to getting up an opposition ticket for the ensuing election. The ticket that has been proposed is highly respectable, being composed of first class merchants, excellent fathers of families, men who give liberally to churches and every benevolent enterprise, and who, so far as we know, are generally clever. We don't anticipate any remarkable discoveries by the Chamber of Commerce unless two new classes of men are put in office. One of these should be young, enterprising men of business, who will take a real interest in the Chamber of Commerce, who will actively promote measures for the common good, but in which they are not specially interested. The other class that the institution needs in office are rocks. We never knew any public or co-operative movement that attracted such attention or accomplished much good unless it had one or two fools connected with it as managers. In such cases a fool keeps matters lively and rides hobbies that promote the success of mere utilitarian measures. We are not sufficiently acquainted among the mercantile community to select one or two fools for positions in the Chamber of Commerce, but we doubt not they can be found. Even one would be of material advantage, by giving life to the institution. What would the Board of Aldermen be if sheep wasn't one fool in it? What is the reason that our Board of Health don't flourish?

Two drivers of an express wagon, who go by the names of Tom McDermott and John Cremer, yesterday accosted a boy named James Ditton, who came in on the Memphis and Ohio train, and proffered to take him to the steamboat landing for fifty cents. He got in their wagon and was taken to the river, where they demanded five dollars for his ride. He said they had offered to take him for fifty cents, and this they answered by knocking him down and taking from him his hat and twenty-eight dollars and thirty cents in money. The boy complained to the police and the scoundrels were arrested. It is to be hoped that all exasperating cases like this, and some of the villains who lie in wait for daily rounds of highway robbery in the streets of Memphis. So common is their offence that the vehicles of such villains are commonly designated by the police and others as "scalping wagons." How is it that the license of such parties are not taken away? How comes it that such bold highway robberies are not punished as they deserve?

Hesperian Pills, the sure cure for ague, were never known to fail. The Hesperian Pills are nicely sugar coated, pleasant to take, and may be relied on as a sure cure. Price only one dollar, at G. W. Jones' drug store. (3)

HE SAYS HE DIDN'T DO IT.—A gentleman, who has a suspicion that he was the Radical merchant referred to as having given a lady a note indicating how she should go to Brown's avenue, and out of which political antagonisms have grown, says he didn't do it. He asserts, in very emphatic terms, that he never did, could or would hand any such note to any lady in his store. How it came into the lady's possession, or who wrote it, he don't pret nd to say. He hands no notes in his store, either to fair damsels or ladies of high degree. In fact, he don't want to. He talks with them, and he sells them goods, but he never looks at them as if he wanted them to go, go, go, anywhere. He never goes to Brown's avenue himself. He wouldn't, necessarily, be neglected if he did. There is evidently a wide margin between the views of Radicals on this point, which, since its ratification in the secret leagues, has assumed political importance. Was the lady mistaken? Has she visited the store since the occurrence? Should the Judge have shot the merchant at the time? What could the merchant expect to find out by proposing to make a hole in the Judge? Out of this matter, which is fully understood and explained, a nice exposure of speculation may come, and a great deal of dirt be thrown by the opposing parties if they try.

The St. Louis Republican gives the following as the rates of freight from that city to New Orleans: Flour 50c by steamers and 40c by barges; whisky by steamer $1 per bbl, and no competition; pork $1 75 and $1 per; apples, potatoes and onions, $1 and 90c; corn 50c and 45c; oats 40c and 35c; oils (excepting coal oil) $1 75 and $1 50; coal oil, per steamer, $2, not carried by the barges; hemp pound freights per steamer 80c per 100 lbs, by barges 65c per 100 lbs; light freights are carried by steamers at the rate of $1 per 100 lbs, and the barges at 90c.

RIVER NEWS.

AVALANCHE OFFICE,
THURSDAY, September 19.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

We had a pleasant but light shower yesterday, which laid the dust, but did not cool off the atmosphere. The river here, like steamers, is falling, and low water patriots are now in their glory. The Illinois is on a stand. The Ohio is lower than at any time since 1858. The Arkansas, White and St. Francis are receding steadily. There is no improvement reported at Phillips'—no arrival from there, in fact, since Tuesday.

ARRIVALS.
Steamer Lizzie Tate, St. Louis.
Jno B Porter, New Orleans.

DEPARTURES.
Steamer Lizzie Tate, New Orleans.
Ezra Forster, Cincinnati.

IN PORT.
Des Arc and Ozark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The arrivals yesterday were confined to a small compass, and business on the landing was very quiet in consequence.

Captain Dan Conway, formerly of the Havana, comes out in command of the Marble City.

The hull of the Atlantic has been purchased by Ill Benner & Co., of New Albany, for a wharfboat.

The Nashville is laid up at Florence.

The Lomax is laid up at Cairo.

The Mississippi has not been laid up.

J. B. Smith, a watchman on the Davenport, was beaten by a lot of negro roustabouts on the last trip of that boat from St. Paul to St. Louis. His wounds are supposed to be mortal.

The fine steamer Des Arc, Captain Elliott, will leave for Vicksburg on Saturday next. Wm. Miller and Cad Hanks are clerks.

The swift Belle St. Louis, Captain Zeigler, leaves for Cairo and St. Louis to-day at five p.m. Billy Blenker is clerk.

The low water packet Ozark, Captain Nowland, leaves for Little Rock to-day. Our friend, Sam Wood, is purser. The Ozark will be sure to go through on time.

Captain John Adams, a well known river man and a member of the firm of Dean & Adams, New Orleans, is in the city.

The elegant passenger packet Minnesota will leave the wharf on Friday evening next, at five o'clock, for Cincinnati. Those wishing a safe and speedy journey would do well to engage passage on this boat. The fact that she is under the command of the able and experienced Captain Kates, is sufficient guarantee that all who travel on her will be well taken care of.

The J. R. McCune will be found in port this morning, and will leave again at five p.m. for all points on White river as far as Jacksonport. Captain Duffer is in command, and Mr. Duff is chief clerk. Our energetic friend, George Fillmore, is order clerk on the McCune, and will attend to all business promptly.

The Lady will go out in place of the Victor to-day. Captain House commands and John Grehan is clerk. The Lady is fast and will suit the trade well. She makes all way landings.

Among the many fine steamers which plow the waters of the Mississippi, none are more entitled to the consideration of the traveling public than the Gleaner. This packet will get away for Pine Bluff and intermediate points, on Saturday next, at five o'clock p.m. Captain King is in command, and will look after the comfort of passengers.

The swift and elegant steamer Rowena is advertised for White river on next Saturday evening, at five o'clock. The Rowena is under command of the accomplished gentleman and popular clerk, Captain D. B. Davis.

We see, by a calculation made in Cincinnati, that more rain has fallen during the year 1867 than in any of the previous thirteen years. The inference and conclusions are that we have already had more than our annual allowance, and that no more rain need fall this year. We do not admire the argument, much less the conclusions.

The difference between the Cincinnati bill of lading and that adopted by the Louisville Captains' Association is simply that the following clause is not embodied in the Louisville form: "With privilege of reshipping, stowing on lighter, and towing in the Ohio river."

The Tempest will not come out even on her present venture to White river. Our Cincinnati and Louisville friends should skip by the Memphis and Louisville railroad, and from here by our line of White river packets. The Courier says of the Tempest: "She was reported by the Empire as hard and fast aground at Smithville, with but slight hopes of getting over unless she lightens. The Tempest is very unfortunate in her first venture in the White river trade, and she may be very fortunate if she ever reaches that stream. She appears to stick as close to the Ohio that it will be very hard work to make her leave it."

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
THURSDAY, September 19.

Gold is again going up in New York. It opened at 44¾ and closed at 45⅝. Small offerings here. Buying at 42 to 42½ c. Silver scarce, buying at 37 to 38c.

EXCHANGE—Is easy. The demand is light. Selling ¼ premium.

CITY SCRIP—Is better. Buyers offer 52c but do not get much at that. Selling at 55c.

COUNTY WARRANTS—Are in demand at 67 to 69, selling at 74 to 75c.

POLICE SCRIP—Is firm at 86c buying. Selling at 90c.

Tennessee money is scarce and inactive. Dealers quid as follows: For Bank of T nessee, old issue, 86c; Bank of West Tennessee, 86c; Bank of Chattanooga, 10; Bank of Middle Tennessee, 86c; City Bank, 86c; Merchants' Bank, 86c; Northern Bank, 86c; Ocoee Bank, 8c; Planters' Bank, 86c; Union Bank, 86c; Shelbyville Bank, 86c; Southern Bank, 86c; Traders' Bank, 86c; Bank of Knoxville, 86c; Commercial Bank, par; Bank of Memphis, par; Bank of the Union, 86c; Beck's Bank, 86c; Life and General Insurance and Trust, 86c; Union Bank certificates, 86c; Bank of Commerce, 86c; Bank of Paris, 86c.

The Dry Good Reporter asks what are the resources upon which the Government may rely for the supplies of coin, and then makes the following estimate:

|---|---|
| Coupons payable Nov. 1 | $24,000,000 |
| do do Jan'y 1, 1868 | 25,000,000 |
| Russian purchase money | 7,000,000 |
| Redemption of Bonds of 1867 | 7,000,000 |
| Supply from California | 12 000,000 |
| | $70,000,000 |

From the present time to the first of January, about $48,000,000 will be wanted for the payment of customs duties; so that of this total supply of $70,000,000 only $22 000,000 will be available for the purposes of liquidating our foreign obligations. The regular supply is thus likely to fall far behind the demand, and there is no apparent means of keeping down the premium except by the Treasury selling a large amount of coin and reducing its reserve. We have repeatedly urged that the secretary should have thrown this needed supply upon the market. His anticipation of the actual want. He, however, prefers to wait until the case are likely to produce embarrassment in the money market, and until the scarcity of gold has forced up the premium, to the great inconvenience of the mercantile interest of the country. For a considerable period, the abundance of foreign capital remaining here for temporary employment has produced an extraordinary ease in money, during which the Treasury might have sold a very heavy amount of coin, without inconvenience to the money market. What would be the consequences were we to break out in Europe, causing a demand for the settlement of balances? The money market would be placed under a cross fire. On the one hand the withdrawal of foreign capital would tend to create stringency; and on the other, the exchange of currency for coin with the Treasury, in order to meet this demand, would deprive the market suddenly of a large amount of the circulating medium. We can not but think that a wise foresight, on the part of the secretary, would have obviated this danger, and that a consequent stringency would not now have been much below the current quotations. The course adopted by the Secretary has placed the gold room under the control of speculators, by keeping the supply upon the market so limited as to render speculating manipulation easy.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
THURSDAY, September 19, 1867.

The hopeful indications which were inaugurated on the commencement of the week bid fair to continue to the end. Country Merchants are in town, and are not so limited in their purchases as formerly. The bad news from all quarters relative to the cotton crop will no doubt have a bad effect upon the fall trade, but it is to be hoped that the damage will not be as great as at present supposed.

HAVANA, September 17.—A Mexico city correspondent, of the 8th instant, says Escobedo published a denial of the authenticity of his letter against foreigners.

Costillo and all the Generals at Queretaro, who were sentenced to be shot, have been pardoned.

Marquez is said to be at Tuxtlan, at the head of some rebel Indians.

Later advices from Vera Cruz have been received, which state that the trial of Santa Anna is daily expected to take place, his counsel having already arrived from the city of Mexico in Vera Cruz. It was generally believed that sentence of death would be found by the court; as an order, however, had arrived from the Supreme Government forbidding the carrying out of any sentence without the findings being approved by the President as Commander-in-chief, it was supposed after trial the authorities intended to pardon the old soldier.

LIVERPOOL, September 18—m.—Cotton active; to-day's sales unchanged at 12¾ of balas; Orleans, 12¼; uplands, 9½d.

The New York Atlantic Telegraph Company has declared a divident of four per cent. on sight per cent. preference shares.

MANCHESTER, September 18.—Colonel Kelly, a Fenian leader in the late outbreak in Ireland, has been arrested and will be sent to Dublin to be tried on the charge of treason.

BELFAST, September 18.—Over eight thousand people attended the funeral of a supposed secret director of a Fenian organization in this section of Ireland.

BERLIN, September 18.—America and Prussia are negotiating for an amicable commercial treaty.

LONDON, September 18.—In the normal meeting held at Lambeth to-day by delegates to the Pan Anglican Convention, the Synod meeting was called together by the Archbishop of Canterbury. Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont; Bishop Odenheimer, of New Jersey, and many other Episcopal clergymen from the United States, were present at the meeting.

NEW YORK, September 18—12 M.—Gold opened at 144⅝, and was since advanced to 145¼. Cotton dull and nominal.

LIVERPOOL, September 18—A. M.—Cotton active; uplands 9½d; Orleans 9¾d; sales 12,000 bales. Consols 94⅞. Five-twenties 72¾.

The Amnesty Proclamation.

From the National Intelligencer.]

We have already stated that the President and his Cabinet, who attended the consultation upon the subject, were unanimously of opinion that the amnesty proclamation which was then agreed upon, and subsequently issued, would have the legal effect of relieving every person embraced within its terms of all disqualifications, as well as all penalties, incurred by complicity in the late rebellion. We added that no jurist of respectable standing of either party would, influenced by the violent pressure of political necessity, deny the soundness of this opinion. We refrained, however, from any speculation as to the means proper to be employed in giving practical effect to the exercise of the privileges restored by that important document. It by no means follows that the executive branch of the government, while possessing and exercising ample authority to remit the forfeiture of rights, is the proper channel through which those rights may be asserted and maintained. This pertains rather to the judicial authority.

In view of the matter it is a little surprising to witness the crude suggestions and wild speculations indulged by the Radical press as to the past and future action of the President. They say that Congress has enacted a law by two-thirds' majority which provides that "No person shall be registered or vote by reason of Executive pardon or amnesty," and that the President, intending to nullify this provision by his proclamation, has rendered himself liable to impeachment. We have seen it suggested, in no quarter friendly to the administration, that the President intends to interfere, directly or indirectly, in the miserable farce of "registration" now going on at the South. His proclamation, in effect, puts all whom it embraces upon an equal footing with other citizens of the United States—that is its legal effect, he believes—and if this be so, and the unconstitutional provision quoted is thereby nullified, it only shows his opponents to admit virtually, that not only it, but all other legislation of Congress setting at naught the constitutional powers of the Executive, were null and void from the beginning. The proclamation may have the effect, and doubtless will, of bringing the question of the constitutionality of the main features of what are called the reconstruction laws before the legal tribunals of the country. It places the great mass of the Southern people in an attitude to assert, and maintain their rights and privileges, and if, when finally passed upon by the Supreme Court, obstructions are still interposed by unauthorized agencies, military or otherwise revolutionary, it will again become the duty of the Executive to interfere and carry into effect, at every hazard, the mandate of the judicial authority. And this, the country may rely upon, will be done to the letter.

How Women "Lobby" at Washington.

Leaning back in a deep chair, on one near her, you see a fair woman, whose beautiful presence seems at variance with the many anxious and angular, and the few coarse women around her. The calmness of assured position, the serene satisfaction of conscious beauty, envelop her and float from her like an atmosphere. We feel it even here. Pale plumes droop above the lovely forehead, velvet draperies fall about her graceful form. We catch a glimpse of alluring laces, the gleam of jewels glittering on dimpled, ungloved hands. Look long into this face; its splendor of tint and perfection of outline can bear the closest scrutiny. Look long, and then say if a soul, saintly as well as serene, looks out from under those penciled arches, through the dilating irises of those beguiling eyes.

Look, and the unvailed gaze which meets you will tell you, as plainly as gaze can tell, that adulation is the life of its life, and seduction the secret of its spell. The beauty would not blanch before the profanest sight; it is the beauty of one who tunes her tongue to honeyed accent, and lifts up her eyelids to lead men astray. She comes and goes in a showy carriage. She glides through the corridors, haunts the galleries and the ante-rooms of the capitol—every where conspicuous in her beauty. All who behold her inquire, who is that beautiful woman? Nobody seems quite sure. Doubt and mystery envelop her like a cloud. "She is a rich and beautiful widow." "She is unmarried." "She is visiting the city with her husband." Every gazer has a different answer.

There are a few deep in the secrets of diplomacy, of legislative venality, governmental prostitution, who can tell you that she is one of the most subtle and most dangerous of lobbyists. She is but one of a class always beautiful and always successful. She plays for large stakes, but she always wins. The man who says to her, "Secure my appointment, make sure my promotion, and I will pay so many thousands," usually gets his appointment, and she her thousands. Does she wait like a suppliant? Not at all. She sits like an empress waiting an audience. Will she receive her subjects in promiscuous assemblage? No, if you wait long enough, you will see her glide over these tesselated floors, but not alone.

Far from the ears of the crowd, in some ante-room, sumptuous enough for the Sybarites, this woman, as beautiful as nature and art can make her, will dazzle the sight of a half demented and wholly bewildered magnate, and then tell him what she wants; with alluring eyes and beguiling voice, she well besieges his will through the outworks of his senses, and so charms him on to do her pleasure. He promises her his influence, he promises her his power, if her favorite shall have the boon he demands. Thus some of the highest prizes in the Government are won. Unscrupulous men pay wily, unprincipled women to touch the surest springs of influence, and thus open a secret way to their public success.

Attachment.

R. E. Poindexter vs. William Jones.

THE plaintiff makes affidavit that the defendant is indebted to him, and has removed out of the county privately, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; having obtained an original attachment before Ben Sherrod, a Justice of the Peace for Tipton county, State of Tennessee, against the defendant, returnable before me on the first Monday in A. D. 1867, on the fourth Monday in August next, and the same having been levied on defendant's property, it is ordered that the defendant appear before me at my office at Mason's Depot, on the fourth Monday in August next, to defend said attachment suit, or it will be proceeded with ex parte; it is further ordered, that this notice be published in the Memphis Weekly Avalanche for four successive weeks. Given under my hand this 13th day of July, 1867.

BEN SHERROD,
Justice of the Peace.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods as usual.

The steam will be divided into five grand compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may have occasion to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The interest of our customers in the river renders the handling of cotton so conveniently that we can transfer same for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage on all cotton sent for compression from or shipped by river. Also on all cotton in our warehouse for compression. Steam can be had on the premises, since it will be as convenient to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust to me executed by Thomas S. Jackson on the 16th day of October, 18 5, (which deed is of record in the Register's office of Shelby county, in book No. 40, part first, pages 126, 127 and 128,) to secure to Mrs. Brooks the prompt payment at maturity of two notes therein specified, and whereas said notes have long since become due and remain unpaid; now, therefore, by virtue of the power in me vested by said trust conveyance, I will, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p m., at the southeast corner of Court Square, in the city of Memphis, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash, the property in said deed conveyed, described as follows, to wit: Lying and being in the city of Memphis and known as lot No. seven, in square forty, and beginning at a stake on Washington street at a point where Robins and Law's southeastern corner is fixed on said street, (its north side) in a deed made to said Brooks by John M. Lee and wife, which deed is of record in the Register's office in book 10, pages 318 and 319, to which reference is here made; thence from this point so fixed east sixty-one feet on said with the north side of Washington street to said Brooks' southwestern corner on said street; thence on and with said Lea and wife's west boundary line 140½ feet to an alley; thence west 61 feet parallel with Washington street to a stake; thence south 140½ feet parallel with said Lea and wife's west line to the beginning.

On Monday, 7th of October, 1867,

Terms cash. Title believed to be good, but I convey only as trustee. The equity of redemption is especially waived.

P. READ, Trustee.
